INCOME-TAX

New Delhi, the 21st November 1955

S.R.O. 3536.—In exercise of the powers conferred by clause (via) of sub-section (3) of section 4 of the Indian Income-tax Act, 1922 (XI of 1922), the Central Government hereby prescribes the following conditions for the exclusion from the total income of a person, not being a citizen of India (hereinafter called "employee"), of passage moneys or the value of free or concessional passages received by or due to him from his employer for himself, his wife and children in connection with his proceeding on home leave out of India, namely:—

1. An employee shall not be entitled to exemption under the said clause in respect of the first occasion on which he proceeds on home leave after the relevant date unless he has completed in all at least forty-two months of service with an employer in India and unless a period of at least thirty months has elapsed in employment since the date of commencement of the home leave immediately preceding the first occasion referred to above.

2. Where an employee has obtained exemption under the said clause in respect of any home leave taken after the relevant date, he shall not again be entitled to exemption under the said clause unless a period of at least thirty months has elapsed in employment since the date of commencement of the home leave immediately preceding the home leave for which exemption is sought.

3. Except where he has attained the age of fifty-five years or completed 25 years of service in India before proceeding on home leave, an employee shall not be entitled to exemption under the said clause in respect of any particular home leave unless he returns to duty in India under the same employer on the expiry of that home leave.

4. The amount to be exempted in respect of each home leave shall not exceed the aggregate of the passage moneys or the value of the passage concessions, as the case may be, provided by the employer and availed of by the employee, reckoned as under:—

- (i) the cost of one set of passage for the employee himself;
- (ii) the cost of one set of passage for the employee's wife;
- (iii) the cost of one set of passage per child for not more than two children below the age of 12 years.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this condition—

- (a) a "set of passage" means the passage from the place where the employee is working in India to the destination in his home country and the passage for the corresponding return journey;
  - (b) in any case where children are entitled to concessional fares, the cost of each set of passage shall be based upon such fares;
  - (c) where the employer does not provide the full fares for the purpose, "the cost of passage" shall mean the value of the concession to the employee in the matter of fares for himself, his wife, or children, as the case may be.
5. The amount to be exempted in respect of each set of passage on any particular occasion of home leave shall not exceed—
- (i) the actual cost of the journey by air or sea and of any incidental journey by land, to the persons concerned, or
  - (ii) the cost of the journey calculated at standard fares,

whichever is less:

Provided that the actual cost of the journey by air or the cost of journey by air at standard fares shall not be taken into account unless on the date of commencement of the home leave the employee is in receipt of or entitled to receive from his employer a salary of Rs. 2,500 or more per month, exclusive of all allowances and other benefits or perquisites.

6. The cost of journey at standard fares shall be determined on the following basis, namely:—

A. Journey by air.—In any case where the journey is actually performed by air, the fare according to the published rates for the time being in force—

- (i) for First Class Accommodation by Air India International for to and fro journeys between airports in India and airports in other countries served by it;

- (iv) for Standard Class Accommodation by K.L.M. Royal Dutch Airlines for to and fro journeys between Calcutta and Holland; and

B. Journey by sea.—The fare according to the published rates for the time being in force—

- (i) for First Class B Grade Accommodation in a steamer belonging to the P. & O. Lines for to and fro journeys between India and the United Kingdom;
- (ii) for First Class Accommodation in a steamer belonging to the Ellerman Bucknall Lines for to and fro journeys between India and the United States of America or Canada;
- (iii) for First Class B Grade Accommodation in a steamer belonging to the P. & O. Lines for to and fro journeys between India and Australia or the Far East (including Japan);
- (iv) for First Class Accommodation in a steamer belonging to the Wilhelmsen Lines for to and fro journeys between India and Northern or North-Western Europe.

For the purposes of this clause—

- (a) the port of embarkation in India shall be the airport served by the Airline concerned which is nearest to the place where the employee is normally residing in India, as the case may be, for journey by air, and the port of Bombay for West-bound trips and the port of Calcutta or Madras (whichever is nearer to the place where the employee is normally residing in India) for East-bound trips for journey by sea;
- (b) the port of disembarkation shall be taken to be the first port (air or sea) of calling in the country of destination;
- (c) for determining the cost of journey at standard fares for the return journey, the same ports in India and the home country shall be taken into account;
- (d) the fare to be taken into account shall be that in force at the commencement of the homeward journey or the return journey, as the case may be. If the commencement of the homeward or return journey falls in and off, low or holiday season for which reduced fares are provided by the air or steamer services concerned, such reduced fares only shall be taken into account.

C. Incidental journey by land.—For incidental journeys by land to the port of embarkation and from the port of dis-embarkation, and vice versa—

- (i) the fare by air-conditioned accommodation by rail transport, if on the date of commencement of the home leave the employee is in receipt of or entitled to receive from his employer a salary of Rs. 1,800 or more per month, exclusive of all allowances and other benefits or perquisites.
- (ii) the fare for first class accommodation by rail transport in other cases, and also in cases where air conditioned accommodation is not provided on the concerned Railways or is not availed of by the persons concerned.

7. (1) An employee shall not be entitled to exemption under the said clause, if, since his entering service in India, the total number of occasions of home leave in respect of which passage concessions were provided by the employer and were wholly or partly availed of by him (whether before or after the relevant date) exceeds—

(a) during the first 25 years of service,

- (i) four, in cases where the passage moneys (in respect of passages after the relevant date) have been or are on any one or more occasions paid in cash by the employer direct to the employee;
- (ii) eight, in other cases;

Provided that, where the total number of occasions of home leave availed of before the relevant date is more than four in either case, the employee shall be entitled to exemption under the said clause in respect of home leave taken after the relevant date on not more than two occasions in cases falling under item (i) and not more than four occasions in cases falling under item (ii).

(b) during the remainder of his service, the number arrived at at the rate of one home leave for every  $2\frac{1}{2}$  years of active service (excluding periods of leave) commencing from the 26th year of service in India.

(2) Except where the context otherwise requires, the exemption to an employee under the said clause in respect of passages or concessions granted to his wife or children by the employer shall be regulated in the same manner as in the case of the employee himself in accordance with these conditions.

(3) For purposes of conditions 1, 2 and 7, any stay by an employee in his home country after the relevant date for more than 60 days otherwise than on home leave, shall also be treated as stay on an occasion of home leave.

8. An employee shall be entitled to exemption under the said clause only if the concessions are availed of on the occasion of his proceeding on home leave out of India. He shall not be entitled to exemption in respect of any amount paid to him in consideration of his refraining from proceeding on home leave.

9. An employee shall not be entitled to any exemption in respect of any passage concessions given to his wife and children unless the journey performed by the wife and/or children precedes the departure or follows the return journey by the employee on the occasion of home leave within a period of not more than twelve months.

10. An employee who claims exemption under the said clause shall furnish to the Income-tax Officer particulars of his home leave in the form annexed.

11. If the Central Government is satisfied that the application of these conditions will result in undue hardship in any case, it may relax any or all of these conditions and pass such orders thereon as it thinks fit.

12. For the purposes of conditions 1, 2 and 7, relevant date shall be the 1st day of April 1955:

CURRENT REPORT

PART I

The Audit Report

I. This part includes only the major and important irregularities and the minor ones have been included in a separate note. One item of objection relating to 1950-51, one pertaining to 1951-52 and 7 items relating to 1952-53 are still pending final disposal.

II. Secretary's Office.

Bill receipt Books—Cash Books etc.

Subscriptions for journals, bulletins etc., are often received by cheques, demand drafts etc. In several cases it is seen that the amounts actually realised by the Committee after meeting bank charges etc. for collection, fall short of the subscription amounts to be realised from the parties.

A few instances are given below :—

Name of Subscriber	Amount of cheque of D.D.	Amount collected	Subscrip- tion due	Remarks
		Rs. as. ps.	Rs. as. ps.
1. Sri K. K. Kumaran, Receipt No. A. 1172, dated 21-7-53.	E. 67642, dated 27-6-53 for Rs. 2/-	1 10 0	2 0 0
2. E. L. Dorado Oil Works, Sanfrancisco Receipt No. A.A. 1251, dated 26-10-53	2-9-0	2 1 0	2 9 0	for one year.
3. M/s. Augus and Robertson Ltd., Sydney.	032338, dated 21-5-1953 for Rs. 7-11-0	7 3 0	7 11 0	for 3 years at Rs. 2-9-0 per year

Short collections of the above type may be either recovered or made good and necessary steps taken for their avoidance in future.

III. Cess Collections.

Though the collection made during the financial year 1953-54 is Rs. 5,86,597-8-8 against Rs. 2,60,907-6-6 in the previous year, an amount of Rs. 2,35,917-15-4 is still due from the various states up to the end of 3/54 as per detailed given below :—

State	Amount
	Rs.
1. Bombay . . .	82,077 14 3
2. Madras . . .	11,332 8 3
3. TRAVANCORE-Cochin	1,40,110 11 10
4. Baroda . . .	501 7 0
5. Saurashtra . .	1,721 0 0
6. Mysore . . .	174 6 0
TOTAL . . .	2,35,917 15 4

As statements of collections in respect of items (2) and (3) have been received only upto 10/53 and 3/53 respectively the actual amount of arrears as at the end of 3/54 must be far greater than the above amount. Vigorous steps may be taken to bring down the arrears to the lowest extent possible.

The progress made in the matter of evolving ways and means in consultation with the Central Board of Revenue as suggested in the previous audit note, to prevent leakage of revenue by non-assessment or otherwise may also be intimated.

IV. Kasaragod Station

Cattle Food Register

As per Director's letter No. F. 335/53 dated 30-11-53 the quantity of approved Cattle food from 30-11-53 is as follows :—

Groundnut cake . . . . .	12 lbs.
Horse Gram . . . . .	8 lbs.
Mineral Mixture . . . . .	8 ozs.
Salt . . . . .	8 ozs.
Green Grass . . . . .	200 lbs.
Paddy straw . . . . .	120 lbs.

But it is seen that 16 lbs. of groundnut cake has been issued daily against 12 lbs. sanctioned. The circumstances under which 4 lbs. of additional quantity was issued may be explained or the cost thereof recovered from the party responsible.

The report of the Assistant Geologist of the Geological Survey of India was received during the year wherein he recommended 22 sites which were inspected by him for the construction of wells under the subsidy scheme. The other mine owners were requested to send their application for according permission to take up the work in hand.

VIII. Subsidised housing scheme

A subsidised housing scheme was sanctioned for the construction of houses of the prescribed standards in the mica field of Bihar with subsidy at the rate of 25 per cent. of the cost of construction subject to the maximum of Rs. 350 per house which are completed within specified time and in case of others subsidy at 20 per cent. of the cost of construction subject to a maximum of Rs. 280 per house. Under the same scheme 8 mine owners applied for the construction of 70 houses. But later on 6 mine owners abandoned the proposal to construct 49 houses due to a slump in the mica market. Only one company namely Messrs. Chrestien Mica Industries Ltd., have completed construction of 12 houses at their Pessam mine except that the door and windows are yet to be fitted.

As the response to this Scheme was not encouraging, sanction has been now accorded to the introduction of a housing scheme for Mica Miners in the States of Bihar, Andhra, Rajasthan and Aimer, on the lines of the Industrial Housing Scheme of the Ministry of Works, Housing and Supply. There is a provision for the construction of both one roomed and two roomed houses by the mine owners according to the plans and specifications laid down in the scheme. A subsidy equal to 25 per cent. subject to a ceiling of Rs. 560 and a loan equal to 37½ per cent. of the cost of construction, subject to maximum of Rs. 840, would be paid for one roomed houses.
